The footnotes are not intended to be part of the adopted policy; they should be removed before the policy is adopted.

1 State law controls this policy's content. Local canvassing boards were abolished in 2006, and the statute requiring school boards to canvass the vote was repealed. The appropriate election authority (county clerk or election commission) canvasses the vote for school district elections. 10 ILCS 5/1-8. The election authority must canvass the vote within 21 days after the election. 10 ILCS 5/22-17 and 5/22-18. Sometime between receiving the results from the election authority, but within 28 days after the consolidated election, boards must hold an organizational meeting to elect officers and fix a time and place for the regular meetings. 105 ILCS 5/10-16. State law contains the schedule for consolidated elections. 10 ILCS 5/2A-1.1. See policy 2:30, School District Elections.

The following option may be added after the second sentence of the first paragraph. It allows a board to recognize that the consolidated election will be postponed for Passover (10 ILCS 5/2A-1.1a); the exact provision is already in 2:30, School District Elections:

If, however, that date conflicts with the celebration of Passover, the consolidated election is postponed to the first Tuesday following the last day of Passover.

2 The oath required by 105 ILCS 5/10-16.5 is "administered as determined by the board." There are lots of variations on how to accomplish this task. One alternative follows:

The meeting is called to order by the Board President, provided he or she is still in office and, if not, by the Vice President. This individual also serves as the meeting's presiding officer. The presiding officer administers the oath of office.

3 Id. A secret vote for officer elections is not permitted. 5 ILCS 120/1.

4 The Open Meetings Act and the School Code have different provisions regarding the establishment of a regular meeting schedule. The Open Meetings Act requires each public body to prepare and make available a regular meeting schedule at the beginning of each calendar or fiscal year. 5 ILCS 120/2.03. The School Code states that this task is accomplished during the organizational meeting. By announcing the schedule at the beginning of each calendar or fiscal year and by fixing the schedule at the organizational meeting, a board can implement both laws.

5 For districts that elect board officers for one-year terms, an optional provision follows:

During an April Board meeting in even-numbered years, the Board considers organizational matters, such as, selecting individual members to fill offices with terms that expire this or the next month and fixing a time and date for its regular meetings.
