The Board of Education welcomes you to the Public Hearing concerning the FY2023 Budget and the 2022-2023 School Year Return to Learn Plan. The following agenda of procedure for the Public Hearing will provide for an orderly opportunity for each school district resident, who so desires, to have an opportunity to be heard in regard to this FY2023 Budget and this Return to Learn Plan.

Hearing Procedures

Generally, the Board President will open the hearings with appropriate remarks concerning the FY2023 Budget and the 2022-2023 School Year Return to Learn Plan. The Board President will then ask those residents in attendance who wish to speak to a topic to identify themselves and ask the Board Clerk to record those names. Following the recording of all names of those desiring to address the Board, the Secretary will call those listed in order and ask them to stand and be heard. A limit of 3 minutes is placed upon residents for their presentation.
